

The Shofar

Presidents Message...

David Greenbaum

Dear Congregants, Friends, and Community:

In the prior edition of the Shofar you were advised that the Board of Directors would begin to explore how we identify as a congregation and the type of rabbi that can best serve our needs. We are and have always identified as a "traditional" house of worship. In the past our congregation was affiliated with the Orthodox Union. For the last 25 years we have been unaffiliated or independent. Despite the fact that the majority of our members do not consider themselves to be orthodox we have always retained orthodox rabbis. Because we allow mixed seating at our services this prevents us from attracting most orthodox rabbis. Our congregation has repeatedly demanded family seating at all religious services. Accordingly, as a compromise we have made accommodations for both separate as well as mixed seating.

The time has come to again explore the issues of identity, affiliation and the type of rabbi that can meet the needs of both our common as well as our different values. In an effort to educate ourselves, the Board of Directors invited a representative of the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism (USCJ) to meet with the entire Board. The conversation was very informative. I learned much from the meeting. The most significant thing I learned was the various types of congregations that are part of the USCJ. More specifically the diverse types of religious services conducted by congregations within the USCJ umbrella. The type of programs, services and rabbinical leadership vary significantly among the approximately 600 congregations. In fact, I concluded that we would not be "compelled" to change anything in either our Constitution or religious services to be affiliated with the USCJ. Obviously the type of service and practices we observe would impact the type of rabbi we might attract; however, the options are much broader than affiliation with the Orthodox Union.

Please understand that I am not personally advocating affiliation with either the USCJ or OU. Many congregations elect not to join any organization and still seek and retain religious leaders based upon community preferences. Immediate Past President Karen Mackey has graciously agreed to Chair a committee of Board and synagogue members to address the issues of affiliation as well as the type of rabbi we will seek to lead us in the future. While our needs are urgent, it is more important to get it right rather than do it quickly. The committee will be meeting in focus groups and/or polling members to obtain a consensus. Your opinions matter. We are a thriving small congregation. We need to grow and attract a future generation of members. Opinions may vary, but our common bonds must outweigh our personal preferences. Compromise is paramount. United we stand, divide we fall. As the great Vulcan, Spock advised, "The needs of the many outweigh the needs of the few."

Join in the conversation. Share your opinions and wishes. Be tolerant of opposing views. We are a community.

Respectfully submitted,
David Greenbaum, President

Sisterhood President...

Karen Mackey

From the Sisterhood...

Sisterhood has been busy! A big thank you to all those that dedicated their Sunday morning for the past 2 months to bake 5000 Hamantashen. Besides getting it done, new friendships were formed and it was a great bonding experience. Also, a big thank you to everyone that helped get the Misholach Manot together and those that supported financially our biggest Sisterhood Fundraiser of the year. It takes a village.

With the kitchens closed during Passover, we will take a break on cooking but I hope to see ya'll during the next few month either at services or during a series of Congregational Conversations the Board is putting together.

Karen Mackey

A good neighbor cares and acts!

Please contact the synagogue if you know of anyone in our community (including yourself) who either:

- does not have a place to be for the Seders and wants one
- or
- needs discreet financial assistance to be able to celebrate the Passover festival

Let us act now so that on seder night we can honestly say
"Let all who are hungry come and eat"

Shabbat Mornings at Agudath Achim

Prayer - Torah Reading - Healing Blessing – Light Kiddush Lunch

9:00 - 11:30AM

Please join us each Shabbat morning for traditional services and torah service. All are welcome as we utilize the Holy Sabbath to nourish our spirits, our minds and our bellies.

Prayers for the Sick: Shabbat is healthy for us as individuals and a great way to spend time in community. In addition we take time to say a prayer for any person in need of healing.

Sponsor Kiddush: It is a lovely way to honor family events – Birthdays, Anniversaries, Yahrzeits, achievements, etc...., or just to participate and treat our community and our friends.

All Welcome: Whether your background is extensive or limited, whether you prefer English or Hebrew, whether you are male or female, there are ways for all to participate.

How we can enhance our Shabbat Morning experience and how you would like to be included.

As a smaller community, we are not able to assemble a minyan every day. But as a caring community we are really good at coming together for specific occasions such as to be able to recite kaddish on the yahrzeit of a relative and it is our honor to do so.

You may need to help make a few phone calls, but the answers you will get are more likely to be yes than no.

Sale of Chametz 5778

Just as the eating of matzah is central to the Passover Holy Day, so too we are commanded not to eat “Chametz”.

Chametz is any of the five grains – wheat, barley, oats, spelt and rye - which has come into contact with liquid and had the opportunity to leaven. This includes not only breads, rolls, bagels, cookies, crackers, pasta and the like, but also liquids such as most liquors, and anything containing vinegar.

Most Jews know that we are not allowed to eat Chametz on Passover. We even know we should avoid using pots, pans, dishes cutlery etc... that were used with Chametz.

What some Jews might not be aware of is that the prohibition against Chametz is so important that it extends not only to eating it, but also to owning it or even to having any Chametz in one’s possession or home. For that reason, we clean our homes extra well before Pesach and conduct a “search for Chametz” the night before Passover to make sure we did not miss anything. We then eat, give or throw away all we have left and recite a special paragraph which says we nullify any tiny crumbs we could not find. This is a lot of work, but it is also a very cathartic Spring Cleaning – removing clutter from our homes and from our souls.

But what if a Jew owns some Chametz which he/she is loathe to simply give or throw away – such as expensive alcohol/liquors or inventory in a business or leftover wedding cake For these exceptions, there is a format by which Jews can divest ownership of their Chametz in and the place it is kept for the eight days of Passover so that they are not in violation. This is achieved by putting the Chametz in some definable and marked space (a cupboard, a box in the garage, a special covered shelf in the freezer...) and then both “selling” the Chametz and renting the space it occupies to a non-Jewish person.

Two things that make this process easier:

1. While we refrain, on Passover, from using the dishes, pans, cutlery, glassware etc... that are used year-round, those items DO NOT NEED to be sold. They simply need to be put away and marked so as to avoid using them accidentally.
2. If someone will be away from their home for the entire week of Passover, it suffices to clean just a little to participate in the mitzvah of ridding one selves of Chametz and then “sell” the entire home.

The sale of Chametz is a legal fiction, but not a joke. The laws are somewhat complicated and therefore it is best to sell one’s Chametz through a trusted rabbi who will make sure the sale takes effect properly and that the ownership is returned properly after Passover has ended. If you would like me to sell your Chametz on your behalf, please complete the form below and return it to Congregation Agudath Achim. ALL FORMS MUST BE RECEIVED IN THE SYNAGOGUE OFFICE BY Tuesday March 27th, 2018.

There is no fee for selling one’s Chametz. It is customary, though, to combine the mitzvah of selling one’s Chametz with the mitzvah of giving charity - especially funds which can be distributed to families with extra needs of matzah, grape juices or meat etc... at this important Holiday. Passover Fund will buy extra supplies to distribute as necessary to those in need. Please know, however, that no donation is necessary and any donation to any worthy cause is also Holy.
