Congregation Agudath Achim

Presidents Message... David Greenbaum

Dear Congregants & Friends:

My message contains several random thoughts, all related to the future of our beloved House of Worship. First, when confronted with the knowledge that my "baby" girl was about to graduate from college, I also recognized that several other young men and women from our community were graduating from various high schools, colleges and yes, medical school. While we admittedly have few children in our Congregation, there is hope for our future. The Class of 2018 together with those that preceded and follow them are the lifeblood of our future. It is not money, the facility, a rabbi, but rather our children which will define our future. Our future as a Congregation, a community and as a people. Our mission as parents, grandparents, hopefully great grand parents and community is do our best to make Little Rock and Congregation Agudath Achim the place our children wish to return to live, work and raise families. We all want what is best for our children. What better way to enjoy life than to have family and friends near us? Let us strive to make our community their future community. Congratulations graduates. Wishing you each much success. Return Home! You are our future!

In an effort to explore our how we identify our future direction and the type of rabbi that can best serve our needs several members of our Synagogue have attempted to personally meet with each member of our Congregation in order to obtain the views of our membership, which is varied. To date, approximately one-half of the membership has been contacted. Your opinions are important and needed. Sincere thanks to Karen Mackey, Sue Weinstein, Toni Roosth, Michael Margolis, Michael Kuperman and Lorit Biton for giving valuable time and effort to obtain every ones input. Please be patient as the process continues. Please join in the conversation. Opinions matter.

In the interim our traditional services have continued thanks in large part to our wonderful and talented lay leadership, including but not limited to Dan Girone, Perry Cohen, Michael Margolis, Dr. Michael Frais, Dr. Michael Kuperman, Dr. Joshua Epstein and Dr. Victor Biton. I have especially enjoyed the brief, yet educational and informative Davar Torah given by Dr. Kuperman. I also appreciate the time and dedication by Dr. Biton in preparing to read Torah on a regular basis. However, services could not proceed without the regular dedicated attendees. Please join us as often as possible for worship, fellowship and Kiddush luncheon.

Finally, I am pleased to announce that the Board of Directors has agreed to engage the services of a world renown cantorial soloist for the High Holy Day services 5779. Cantor Charles Taub has agreed to lead services during Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur in September, 2018. I anticipate that the letter of engagement will be executed shortly. We are fortunate to have attracted Cantor Taub to Little Rock. Please invite your family and friends to come to our High Holy Day services this year and enjoy the meaningful prayers which will be enhanced with the addition of Cantor Taub. Thank you to Jana and Perry Cohen for graciously agreeing to host Cantor Taub and his wife Miriam during their stay in our community. Further details will follow.

Why Do Jews Eat Dairy on Shavuot?

One of the most popular customs on Shavuot is to eat dairy foods such as cheesecake, cheese, blintzes and ice cream. If you have ever wondered where this tradition comes from, here are a few possible explanations:

Shavuot celebrates the giving of the Torah to the Jews. Included in the Torah are the laws of kashrut (kosher dietary laws), which tell Jews what can and cannot be eaten and in which combination. For instance, dairy and meat cannot be mixed in the same meal and animals must be killed in a certain way in order to be considered kosher. Before the Torah was given the concept of kashrut did not exist. Hence, one explanation for the eating of dairy on Shavuot is that when the Jews received the Torah they did not have the tools they would need to prepare kosher meat. As a result their first meal after receiving the Torah was a dairy meal. (Mishnah Berurah 494:12; Talmud - Bechorot 6b.)

Another possible explanation has to do with Shir HaShirim (the Song of Songs). Verse 4:11 says "milk and honey are under your tongue" and some have said that the Torah is like the milk in this verse. Like milk, the Torah sustains us. Hence, a dairy meal on Shavuot celebrates the nourishing quality of the Torah.

The Revelation at Sinai (when the Torah was given to the Jews) occurs directly after their Exodus from slavery in Egypt. This journey is described as one "from the misery of Egypt to a country flowing with milk and honey..." (Exodus 3:8-17). Thus, eating dairy on Shavuot commemorates the sweetness of freedom and the new life that lay before the Jewish people.

Yom Ha Shoah and the Museum of Jewish Life

The second week of April was filled with memorials and meetings held in remembrance of the Holocaust. The Jewish Federation of Arkansas sponsored the annual ceremony at our synagogue. Speaker Fred Hilsenrath held over 75 people captive with his own story of captivity as a young child in Germany. From the 12 day trip in the boxcar to his confronting of authorities in difficult situations, all were moved by his experience and survival.

Thursday, April 12th, President of the Board Dave Greenbaum, Eva Zeno and Debi Steppach traveled to Little Rock Air Force Base to speak at the third annual Holocaust Remembrance Week Ceremony. Welcoming them were the Base Commander, Wing Commanders and many officers, NCO's, airmen and families who gathered to hear eye witness accounts of the War days and the time following. Many expressed their desire to visit the Museum of Jewish Life for more information.

The Museum of Jewish Life continues to draw interest from around the world. Visitors from our nearby neighbor St. Andrews Anglican Church as well as a gentleman from Melbourne, Australia, have walked the corridors. When you have a spare moment, step inside our Library/Media Center and peruse the pages of the guest book. Comments from five year olds to 80 year olds will lift your spirits and encourage you.

The Museum continues to draw positive attention to Agudath Achim, giving our community a place to remember. The new exhibit "Hands of History" room receives incredible praise from tours. Along side that, in the Holocaust Room, may be found the words of Cpl. Nathan Steppach Sr., liberator and medic at Dachau.

"Shout it from the housetops! NEVER forget!"
May we never forget to not forget.

What Is Shavuot?

The Feast of Weeks

Shavuot is a Jewish holiday that celebrates the giving of the Torah to the Jews. The Talmud tells us that God gave the Ten Commandments to the Jews on the sixth night of the Hebrew month of Sivan. Shavuot always falls 50 days after the second night of Passover. The 49 days in between are known as the Omer.

Origins of Shavuot

In biblical times Shavuot also marked the beginning of the new agricultural season and was called Hag HaKatzir, which means "The Harvest Holiday." Other names Shavuot is known by are "The Feast of Weeks" and Hag HaBikurim, meaning "The Holiday of First Fruits." This last name comes from the practice of bringing fruits to the Temple on Shavuot. After the destruction of the Temple in 70 CE the rabbis connected Shavuot with the Revelation at Mt. Sinai, when God gave the Ten Commandments to the Jewish people. This is why Shavuot celebrates the giving and receiving of the Torah in modern times.

Celebrating Shavuot Today

Many religious Jews commemorate Shavuot by spending the entire night studying Torah at their synagogue or at home. They also study other biblical books and portions of the Talmud. This all-night gathering is known as Tikun Leyl Shavuot and at dawn participants stop studying and recite shacharit, the morning prayer.

Tikun Leyl Shavuot is a kabbalistic (mystical) custom that is relatively new to Jewish tradition. It is increasingly popular among modern Jews and is meant to help us rededicate ourselves to studying Torah. Kabbalists taught that at midnight on Shavuot the skies open for a brief moment and God favorably hears all prayers.

In addition to study, other Shavuot customs include:

- Chanting the Ten Commandments.
- Reading Megilat Rut, known as the Book of Ruth in English. This biblical book tells the story of two women: a Jewish woman named Naomi and her non-Jewish daughter-in-law Ruth. Their relationship was so strong that when Ruth's husband died she decided to join the Jewish people by converting to Judaism. The Book of Ruth is read during Shavuot because it takes place during the harvest season and because Ruth's conversion is thought to reflect our acceptance of the Torah on Shavuot. Also, Jewish tradition teaches that King David (Ruth's great-great-grandson) was born and died on Shavuot.
- Decorating our synagogues and homes with roses or aromatic spices. This custom is based on midrashim that connect the events at Sinai to spices and roses.

The Foods of Shavuot

Jewish holidays often have some food-related component and Shavuot is no different. According to tradition we should eat dairy foods such as cheese, cheesecake and milk on Shavuot. No one knows where this custom comes from but some think it is related to Shir HaShirim (The Song of Songs). One line of this poem reads "Honey and milk are under your tongue." Many believe that this line is comparing the Torah to the sweetness of milk and honey. In some European cities children are introduced to Torah study on Shavuot and are given honey cakes with passages from the Torah written on them.
