Congregation Agudath Achim

Presidents Message… David Greenbaum

Dear Congregants and Friends,

I trust and hope that each of you is enjoying time with your friends and family during this usual hot Arkansas summer. With the passage of time and the absence of my children tolerance for outdoor activities decrease during the summer. With summer vacations Congregational activities also diminish. Nethertheless, I hope your "summer break" from day to day activities relieves stress and restores your strength. Soon the summer will pass and we as a congregation and people will begin yet another year. Yes, 5778 is quickly passing and soon Rosh Hashanah 5779 will arrive and with it many major and minor holidays which we as Jews are obligated to observe. While Rosh Hashanah which begins at sundown on September 9, 2018 is our first major holiday in 5779 culminating with Yom Kippur, the holiest day of the year on September 19, 2018, actually our next holiday is Tisha B'Av (literally the 9th of Av) which falls on July 22, 2018. While Tisha B'Av is considered a minor holiday, it completes a three week period of communal mourning by the Jewish people. Multiple catastrophes occurred on Tisha B'Av, including but not limited to the destruction of the Holy Temple, twice on that same day. It is a day of fasting and mourning. Because we are without a rabbi, there will not be a service on Tisha B'Av and the reading from the Book of Lamentations.

The Board of Directors has delayed a search for our next religious leader pending congregational meeting(s), further discussions and a congregational vote on whether or not we as a congregation wish either to formally join the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism (USCJ) or remain unaffiliated. While a majority of the Board supports joining USCJ, the issue will be presented to the full membership for a vote. Congregants will soon receive a letter outlining the results of recent surveys that were conducted and requesting your attendance, opinions, and vote at the schedule meeting. Please attend. Your voice, your vote, your Synagogue.

The Board is also pleased to announce that we have retained the services of a world renowned Hazan for the High Holy Days. Cantor Charles Taub has signed a letter of engagement and will chant various portions of the services of both days of Rosh Hashanah, Kol Nidre, and Yom Kippur services at Agudath Achim. Please plan to attend service. Invite friends and family to attend any and all High Holy Day Services. As always, there is no charge for seating and attendance. All are welcome.

One final comment and apology. As you already know we are without a rabbi. One of the duties of our rabbi is the direction and guidance of the preparation of our weekly bulletins and bi-monthly Shofar. The last issue of the Shofar omitted the announcement of two graduates. We regret that we failed to announce that Eden Kirsch, daughter of Jeff and Ellen Kirsch graduated from Conway High School. Also, we regret that we failed to announce that Jacqueline (Mumford) Miles graduated from the University of Arkansas Little Rock with honors. Please accept our heartfelt apology. Simchas and all life cycle events related to our members and friends need to be shared with the community. Because we are a small community and without a rabbi it is incumbent on each of us to share news, both good and sad so that in turn it can be communicated to the community. Our administrative assistant, Laura will be happy to share news, weekly or in the Shofar. However, she must be informed of all events. Please assist us by contacting either the office or any Board members with any newsworthy information.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dave Greenbaum, President

The Three Weeks and Tisha B'Av (2018)

Tisha B'Av (literally the 9th day of Av) is a date on the Jewish Calendar upon which multiple catastrophes have occurred over the years. It is like September 11th several times over. The Holy Temple was destroyed on that day – twice! The Jews who left Egypt during the Exodus were told on that day that they would have to wander 40 years in the desert because of their stubbornness.

While Tisha B'Av is only one day, we mark the season starting three weeks earlier on the 17th of Tammuz on which other calamities took place including the breaking of the tablets with the Ten Commandments. The time between the 17th of Tammuz and the 9th of Av is called Beyn Ha Metzarim in Hebrew or "The Three Weeks" in English.

The Three Weeks is a period of communal mourning by the Jewish people – very similar to when a loved one dies. For the entire period we are to abstain from overt acts of joy such as weddings, live music, dancing and haircuts/shaves. As we come closer to the 9th of Av (the last nine days) we decrease our joy even further by not eating meat or wine (other than on Shabbat) or bathing for pleasure. And on the 9th of Av itself we mourn full out. On this day we all sit on the floor or on low chairs like mourners. We fast for a full 24 hours (like Yom Kippur) as well as refrain from other basic pleasures such as washing, leather shoes and marital intimacy. We are not even allowed to study Torah or put on Tefillin until the day is almost over because these activities are too joyful.

Throughout the entire 3 weeks and on Tisha B'Av itself we are allowed to "work" - write, drive, use electricity, etc... (except , of course, on Shabbat), because refraining from "work" is a matter of Holiness for Shabbat/festivals. That is not to be confused with matters of mourning which apply to Tisha B'Av and the weeks before. While we are not forbidden to work on Tisha B'Av, work can not be used as an excuse to not fulfill the requirements of the day such as fasting, reflecting and reciting the Book of Lamentations.

Through our mourning we show how precious the Holy Temple was to us and how we have not forgotten.

Dates & Times for this year (2018)

17th of Tammuz	beginning of the mourning period	Sat June 30th minor fast 4:53am - 9:11pm
1st of Av Rosh Chodesh -	mourning intensifies	Fri July 13th
9th of Av Tisha B'Av	day of complete mourning	Fri July 20th - Sat July 21st July 21st - Fast begins 8:19pm July 22nd - Fast ends 9:03pm

May we soon behold the rebuilding of the Temple & the restoration of G-d's Holy presence in our midst.

Shabbat Mornings at Agudath Achim

Prayer - Torah Reading - Healing Blessing – Light Kiddush Lunch
9:00 - 11:30AM

Please join us each Shabbat morning for traditional services and torah service. All are welcome as we utilize the Holy Sabbath to nourish our spirits, our minds and our bellies.

Prayers for the Sick: Shabbat is healthy for us as individuals and a great way to spend time in community. In addition we take time to say a prayer for any person in need of healing.

Sponsor Kiddush: It is a lovely way to honor family events – Birthdays, Anniversaries, Yahrzeits, achievements, etc…., or just to participate and treat our community and our friends.

All Welcome: Whether your background is extensive or limited, whether you prefer English or Hebrew, whether you are male or female, there are ways for all to participate.

How we can enhance our Shabbat Morning experience and how you would like to be included.

Weekday Minyanim in honor of Yahrzeits

As a smaller community, we are not able to assemble a minyan every day. But as a caring community we are really good at coming together for specific occasions such as to be able to recite kaddish on the yahrzeit of a relative and it is our honor to do so.

You may need to help make a few phone calls, but the answers you will get are more likely to be yes than no.
