Congregation Agudath Achim

President's Message... Susan Weinstein

As most of you know, this has been a very difficult few years for me. But the world goes on as always, and time pushes forward. Please bear with me over the next few months as I try to get into the swing of leading an organization I care so deeply about. As a dear friend says, we all have our baggage to schlepp!

We are at a pivotal moment in our Synagogue's history, following the August vote to affiliate with the Conservative movement. Right now, we are a dying congregation. Without making some important changes, we stood the chance of having to close our doors sometime in the not too distant future. With this new affiliation, we have an opportunity to revitalize our Jewish community, fill a niche for Judaism in Arkansas, and hopefully attract a vibrant new rabbi and new members.

This all will take time, compromise, and hard work. We are indebted to the dedicated men that are currently leading services and all of our members. As Albert Einstein is credited with saying "The definition of insanity is doing the same thing over and over again but expecting different results". We may have to try different things to see what works best for our congregation; if something works we will keep it, if it doesn't, we'll try something else.

I am committed to several important things during my presidency. We have already begun the process of joining the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism. Once we are officially accepted for membership, our Rabbi search committee can begin in earnest. Our immediate past president, Dave Greenbaum, named a search committee chaired by Michael Kuperman and including Victor Biton, Dan Girone, Valerie Steinberg, Lirit Franks and myself. We have already surveyed what our members would like in a rabbi and the committee will move forward with the next steps as soon as possible. It is a process, and will take time, but in the end, we hope to hire a vibrant rabbi that we can respect and enjoy. Finally, we need to look closely at our Constitution to see if any changes need to be made and we need to establish bylaws. If anyone is aware of existing bylaws for our Synagogue, please let me know ASAP!

I am open to hearing your opinions and concerns. Please don't hesitate to contact me so we can work together through any problems.

I'm honored to be trusted to be your president and can only promise to do my best.

"Our lives are fashioned by our choices. First we make our choices. Then our choices make us."

Sisterhood President… Karen Mackey

Sisterhood has a couple of events planned for the upcoming months that should be fun and also help others. Come on out Sunday, November 18 for lunch and card making. My sister Gayle will be in town and bringing some of her scrapbooking and card making materials and layouts. Also, please bring some non-perishable food items to donate to the Arkansas Food Bank to distribute. They are always in need of things like peanut butter, canned meat, cereal and canned goods. Also, in December, Sisterhood will co-sponsor the Hanukkah Latke party.

Hope to see everyone there!

Wishing you and your family a Happy and Meaningful Thanksgiving,

Karen Mackey

Thank you

Please join us each Shabbat morning for traditional services and torah service. All are welcome as we utilize the Holy Sabbath to nourish our spirits, our minds and our bellies.

Prayers for the Sick: Shabbat is healthy for us as individuals and a great way to spend time in community. In addition we take time to say a prayer for any person in need of healing.

Sponsor Kiddush: It is a lovely way to honor family events – Birthdays, Anniversaries, Yahrzeits, achievements, etc…., or just to participate and treat our community and our friends.

All Welcome: Whether your background is extensive or limited, whether you prefer English or Hebrew, whether you are male or female, there are ways for all to participate.

How we can enhance our Shabbat Morning experience and how you would like to be included.

A project of the Aleph Society

The Jewish Community of Central Arkansas welcomes you to the Global MORNING of Jewish Learning. You come, you nosh, you learn, you nosh some more, you leave, you're wiser!

Extraordinary Passages: Texts and Travels

Sunday, November 11 9:15 a.m. - Noon

This year's theme addresses the journeys that matter most to us. From ancient adventures to modern times in the diaspora, experience the journeys of individuals and the Jewish people. Now in its 9th year, Global Day presents the opportunity for us to gather as a community and learn with stellar facilitators from diverse backgrounds as 400 other communities around the world do likewise. Far from being lectures, these classes spark thought-provoking conversations that have something for absolutely everyone! You may choose classes from the following – each class will be offered twice – and of course there will be coffee and delicious Kosher noshables.

Generations: A Family's Journeys

Rabbi Barry Block, Congregation B'nai Israel

A family journey of the three generations of our matriarchs and patriarchs led to the formation of a nation of people called the Children of Israel. We'll look at how their paths diverged, how their lives connected with the Land of Israel, and explore the meanings of their multi-generational saga.

Journey into the Unknown

Phillip Spivey, UCA Senior Lecturer of Philosophy and Religion

What does it mean to set out on a journey without knowing the destination? Meet Abram (Abraham) who is commanded to "go forth!" and does just that. We will explore what this passage of the Bible may reveal about journeys and progress.

The Journey of Our Names

Ellyn Polsky, Director of Lifelong Learning Emerita, Congregation B'nai Israel

Names are significant, and carry promises and challenges. Our own names embody aspirations – hopes that our families have for us and that we have for ourselves. We will look at how some biblical characters transform when their names change, and trace the journeys of some modern examples.

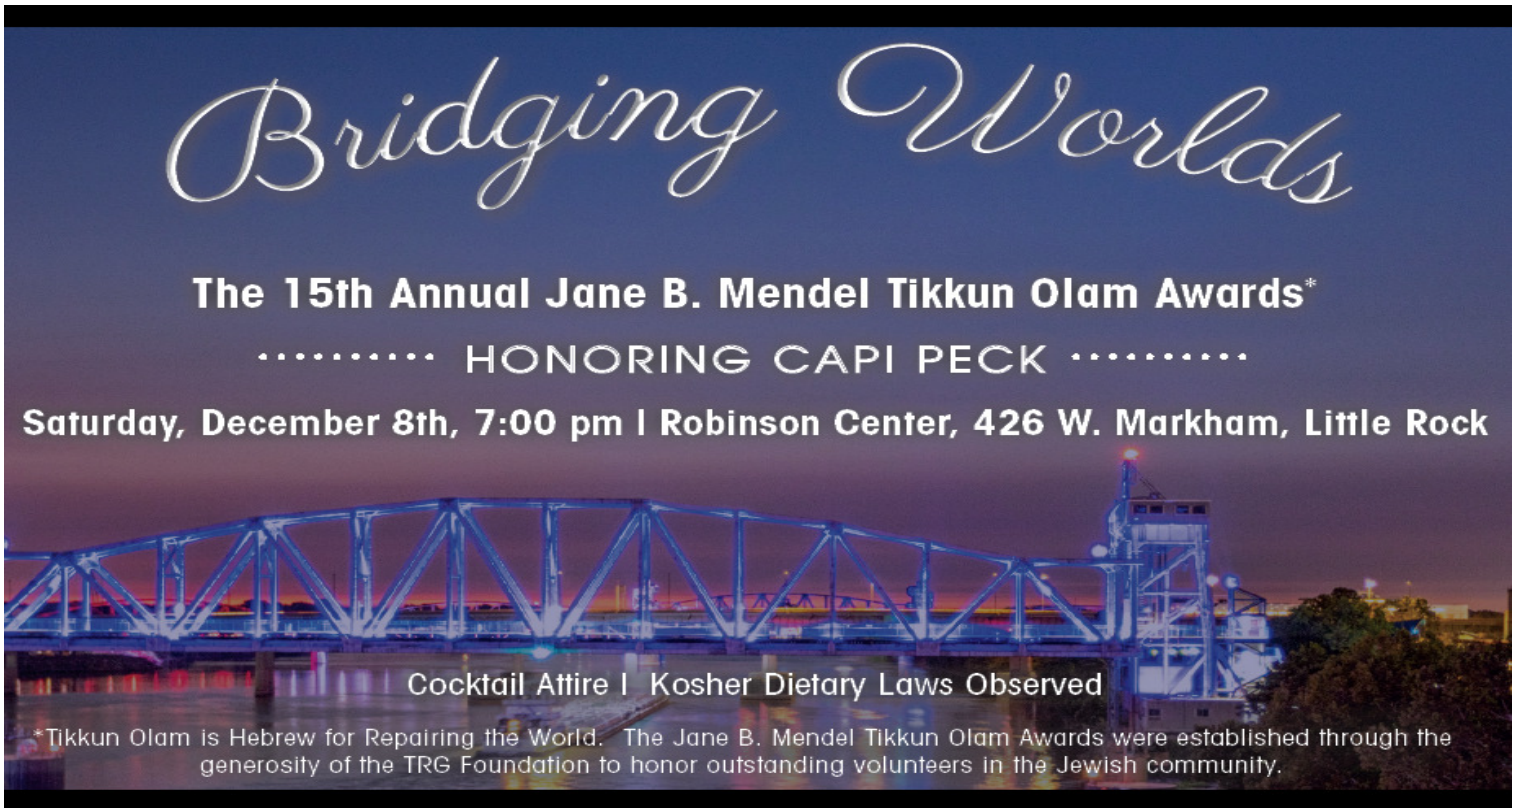
The Making of a Wandering People

Rabbi Pinchus Ciment, Lubavitch of Arkansas

How can a nation or a people exist in diaspora? We will explore how the experience of exile has shaped the Jewish people, from biblical times to the present day.

Please call, text, or email to pre-register: Meg Marion 951-3345, meg.marion@mac.com.
Sponsored by JFAR, with the support of Congregations B'nai Israel and Agudath Achim.
Donations are always welcome.

Jewish Federation of Arkansas



THE MUSEUM OF JEWISH LIFE has been busy this fall. Two groups visited from completely different backgrounds.

In September, twenty students and moms came from the Jacksonville area. All homeschoolers from the ages of four to fourteen, they roamed the hallways and learned a lot about Judaism as well as the history of the Congregation.

As usual, these younger visitors showed incredible curiosity as well as great respect and dignity in the Holocaust Room. You could see their minds pondering as they saw children their age being affected by the War. They heard how being kind to one another can help create a better world.

On September 12th, the halls were filled with music as well as testimony from our own Derek Mumford. The award winning organization, Operation Song, from Nashville, Tennessee, came to interview Derek. Operation Song is a group of accomplished composers who have chosen to take untold stories of veterans, put them to music, and present those sagas to the world. Operation Song has been recognized by the Veterans Administration for helping bring mental and physical healing to those who served in the military, who have served us all by their willingness to go and keep our world safe.

Derek is one of two from Little Rock to tell his story. A survivor of the Holocaust during World War II, as a child he escaped the bombings of London by coming to the United States. As an adult, he served in the Royal Air Force, moved to America and was drafted into the United States Air Force. Meeting Mary, marrying and converting to Judaism, his story is unique.

Don Goodman and Steve Dean, Grammy Award winning composers, worked along side Jason Truby, a renowned local artist, to put together the notes and lyrics to properly create Derek's song. We may all hear it performed at this year's Jewish Federation of Arkansas's Tikum Olam Dinner. This makes a wonderful reason to attend and support this year.

Invite your friends and families to tour the Museum. No one leaves unchanged. It's our opportunity to open up our wonderful congregation to the world beyond our walls. Make a date now for private tours.
