Congregation Agudath Achim

President's Message… Susan Weinstein

Hello congregants,

Thank you again for entrusting me with being president of our congregation. It is an awesome responsibility and I'm trying my best to do well by everyone.

While it might not be obvious on the outside, there is much activity going on at the Synagogue. Kudos go to our regular congregants that keep our services going beautifully, including Dan Girone, Victor Biton, Perry Cohen, Michael Kuperman and Dave Greenbaum. We couldn't do it without them!

Here are my updates as of the writing of this letter.

Security:

- We have now installed magnetic locks on the front doors. Thank you Chuck Prousnitzer. These allow the door to remain locked unless someone has a code or key fob. From the inside there is a motion detector so the door unlocks as you get very close, and there also is a green exit button. On Shabbat, it will be automatically disabled from 8:30 until 12:30 so congregants can enter for services.
- Signs have been ordered for our parking lot and property indicating no trespassing and private property with no parking. The police suggested these as signage does help.
- A stronger motion detector for the social hall has been installed, and signs have been placed on windows indicating we have cameras and alarms (thank you Laura).

Building and Grounds:

- A deep cleaning of the kitchens is being arranged. Sisterhood usually pays to do this yearly right before Passover, but we're doing it a bit early to prepare for the Kuperman wedding.
- Stained ceiling tiles have been replaced as well as other minor repairs.
- Mikvah repairs are being done so that it is functional again. We aren't doing a complete overhaul but making it functional as well as cleaning up the rust and damage from the humidity that is in there. Thanks goes to Jeff Brown for getting the heater repaired, rebuilding the shed over the pump and heater, and doing some additional repairs within the mikvah.

Religious Committee:

- This committee is meeting to discuss changes we can start to make to move toward a more Conservative affiliated synagogue. We voted overwhelmingly to become Conservative and need to make those small changes our members want.

Rabbi Search:

- We had hoped to be able to interview some new graduates, but no one signed up to meet with us through the USCJ matching process. However, Lirit Franks went to Los Angeles during this time and met with rabbinic leadership of USCJ to get us more visibility and information. Thank you Lirit!
- Our advertisement is posted on the USCJ website and we have gotten a few resumes, some of which look promising. The committee is meeting to discuss our next steps.

Kiddush Luncheons:

- Sisterhood is taking over this vital function and has begun a calendar signup for Kiddush luncheons so that the burden doesn't fall on one person constantly. Thanks goes to Dave Greenbaum for preparing the Kiddush's for many years. If you're very familiar with our kitchens and know the kashrut laws and want to be involved, please let me know.

Committees:

- I am looking for members who are interested in serving on one of our committees. We especially could use some members on By laws & Governance, Budget & Finance, Building & Grounds and always Membership. If we want to grow and make changes, it will take all of us participating.

A huge thank you goes out to Laura Schultz, our office administrator. She is amazingly organized, goes over and beyond what she is required to do, and is a blessing to us. Please thank her if you see her or talk with her.

Sisterhood President… Karen Mackey

Happy Spring!

We have lots going on right now starting with Purim. First, I would like to thank all the ladies and man who have come out every Sunday to bake Hamantashen for our Shalach Manot bags and boxes. And thank you to Valerie for once again taking care of the business end of this fund raiser. We still need all the help we can get on Sunday, March 17th to pack the bags and deliver. Please come help for a few hours that morning. Sisterhood will once again have a booth at the Jewish Food Fest, if you would like to volunteer for a 2 hour shift in the booth on April 14, please contact Valerie Steinberg or Karen Mackey. Sisterhood is also taking over preparing Kiddush on Saturday mornings and if you enjoy cooking and preparing, we are looking for individuals to sign up to prepare a kiddush once every couple of months. There is much going on and I appreciate all the help and support from our Sisterhood members.

Shabbat Mornings at Agudath Achim

Prayer - Torah Reading - Healing Blessing – Light Kiddush Lunch
9:00 - 11:30AM

Please join us each Shabbat morning for traditional services and torah service. All are welcome as we utilize the Holy Sabbath to nourish our spirits, our minds and our bellies.

Prayers for the Sick: Shabbat is healthy for us as individuals and a great way to spend time in community. In addition we take time to say a prayer for any person in need of healing.

Sponsor Kiddush: It is a lovely way to honor family events – Birthdays, Anniversaries, Yahrzeits, achievements, etc…., or just to participate and treat our community and our friends.

All Welcome: Whether your background is extensive or limited, whether you prefer English or Hebrew, whether you are male or female, there are ways for all to participate.

How we can enhance our Shabbat Morning experience and how you would like to be included.

Weekday Minyanim in honor of Yahrzeits

As a smaller community, we are not able to assemble a minyan every day. But as a caring community we are really good at coming together for specific occasions such as to be able to recite kaddish on the yahrzeit of a relative and it is our honor to do so.

You may need to help make a few phone calls, but the answers you will get are more likely to be yes than no.

Sale of Chametz 5779

Just as the eating of matzah is central to the Passover Holy Day, so too we are commanded not to eat "Chametz".

Chametz is any of the five grains – wheat, barley, oats, spelt and rye - which has come into contact with liquid and had the opportunity to leaven. This includes not only breads, rolls, bagels, cookies, crackers, pasta and the like, but also liquids such as most liquors, and anything containing vinegar.

Most Jews know that we are not allowed to eat Chametz on Passover. We even know we should avoid using pots, pans, dishes cutlery etc… that were used with Chametz.

What some Jews might not be aware of is that the prohibition against Chametz is so important that it extends not only to eating it, but also to owning it or even to having any Chametz in one's possession or home. For that reason, we clean our homes extra well before Pesach and conduct a "search for Chametz" the night before Passover to make sure we did not miss anything. We then eat, give or throw away all we have left and recite a special paragraph which says we nullify any tiny crumbs we could not find. This is a lot of work, but it is also a very cathartic Spring Cleaning – removing clutter from our homes and from our souls.

But what if a Jew owns some Chametz which he/she is loathe to simply give or throw away – such as expensive alcohol/liquors or inventory in a business or leftover wedding cake …. For these exceptions, there is a format by which Jews can divest ownership of their Chametz in and the place it is kept for the eight days of Passover so that they are not in violation. This is achieved by putting the Chametz in some definable and marked space (a cupboard, a box in the garage, a special covered shelf in the freezer…) and then both "selling" the Chametz and renting the space it occupies to a non-Jewish person.

Two things that make this process easier:

1. While we refrain, on Passover, from using the dishes, pans, cutlery, glassware etc… that are used year-round, those items DO NOT NEED to be sold. They simply need to be put away and marked so as to avoid using them accidentally.
2. If someone will be away from their home for the entire week of Passover, it suffices to clean just a little to participate in the mitzvah of ridding one selves of Chametz and then "sell" the entire home.

The sale of Chametz is a legal fiction, but not a joke. The laws are somewhat complicated and therefore it is best to sell one's Chametz through a trusted rabbi who will make sure the sale takes effect properly and that the ownership is returned properly after Passover has ended. If you would like me to sell your Chametz on your behalf, please complete the form below and return it to Congregation Agudath Achim. ALL FORMS MUST BE RECEIVED IN THE SYNAGOGUE OFFICE BY Tuesday April 16th, 2019.

I hereby request and authorize _____to effectuate the sale of all Chametz in my possession at the following locations (home, work, storage, boat, etc….) I understand that during the entire week of Passover this Chametz and the space it is occupies will be transferred to another person and I will respect that person's ownership. Ownership will be returned approximately one hour after the conclusion of the holiday at 8:36 PM - Saturday April 27th, 2019.

There is no fee for selling one's Chametz. It is customary, though, to the combine the mitzvah of selling one's Chametz with the mitzvah of giving charity - especially funds which can be distributed to families with extra needs of matzah, grape juices or meat etc… at this important Holiday. Passover Fund will buy extra supplies to distribute as necessary to those in need. Please know, however, that no donation is necessary and any donation to any worthy cause is also Holy.

2019 Jewish Food and Cultural Festival

at War Memorial Stadium

APRIL 14TH

SAVE THE DATE

On Sunday, April 14th, 2019 the Jewish Federation of Arkansas (JFAR) will hold its annual Jewish Food and Cultural Festival at War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock, Arkansas. The festivities kick off at 9:00 a.m. and end at 4:00 p.m.

The venue at War Memorial Stadium continues to offer great advantages, such as ample free parking, indoor concourse locations for food booths and shopping, and the opportunity for kids to run around on the football field.

Visitors are invited to bring a bag of non-perishable food items to donate to the Arkansas Food bank.

Again this year, Tzedakah Boxes (boxes for charity) will be located throughout the stadium for people to deposit tickets they purchased but did not use; proceeds from the boxes will be divided among local charities that Jewish Federation of Arkansas supports.
